

Michael A. Burns

Senior Associate

Baltimore

Biography

Michael Burns focuses his practice on both commercial and complex civil litigation across all industries and has a depth of experience finding creative solutions for clients. During the most difficult disputes, his clients and colleagues alike have lauded Mike for his keen attention to detail and tireless work ethic.

A native of Baltimore, Mike recently returned to the city and joined Hogan Lovells after practicing at an international law firm in Washington, D.C., where he focused on complex civil litigation and cross-border white collar investigations. He previously served as law clerk to a judge sitting on the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Mississippi.

During law school at Georgetown University, Mike competed as a member of the Barristers' Council trial advocacy team that won a national mock trial competition.

Representative experience

Represented a large pharmaceutical company in federal and several state actions relating to the manufacture, distribution, and marketing of prescription opioids.*

Assisted numerous international companies in

Phone

+1 410 659 2728

Fax

+1 410 659 2701

Email

michael.burns@hoganlovells.com

---

Practices

Litigation

---

Industries

Life Sciences and Health Care

---

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, 2013

B.A., University of Maryland, Baltimore County, 2008

---

conducting internal investigations of alleged violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.*

Represented a large financial institution in DOJ investigation and settlement relating to purported currency foreign exchange rate manipulation.*

*Matter handled prior to joining Hogan Lovells.

Bar admissions and qualifications

Maryland

District of Columbia

---

Court admissions

U.S. District Court, District of Columbia

---