

Charles Barrera Moore

Associate
New York

Biography

Charles Barrera Moore represents clients in a wide range of complex commercial disputes.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Charles served as a law clerk to Judge Richard W. Goldberg of the U.S. Court of International Trade. Judge Goldberg served as a visiting judge in the U.S. Courts of Appeal for the Second, Eighth, and Eleventh Circuits, and in multiple federal district courts during his clerkship.

In law school, Charles was the Lead Online Editor for the Minnesota Law Review and also participated in the representation of individuals in immigration matters as a member of the James H. Binger Center for New Americans. The Immigrant Law Center of Minnesota named him a recipient of the 2017 National Advocate of the Year Award, recognizing his work as part of a group of organizations.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Global Accountants' Liability Update – September 2020
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Global Accountants' Liability Update – May 2020
- Published Works
 - A Look Ahead: Potential Constitutional Challenges

Phone

+1 212 918 5587

Fax

+1 212 918 3100

Email

charles.moore@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Litigation Services

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., University of Minnesota Law School, magna cum laude, 2017

B.A., Boston College, 2011

Bar admissions and qualifications

New York

to the Proposed New York Legislation for U.S. Dollar
LIBOR Contracts New York Law Journal