

Rachel Bayer

Associate
New York

Biography

Rachel Bayer focuses her practice on general corporate and finance matters. Rachel recently rejoined Hogan Lovells after working at the firm as a summer associate in 2019.

During law school, Rachel worked as a legal intern for the United States Securities Exchange Commission and was an editor for the Journal of National Security Law and Policy. She was also a member of the Womens Legal Alliance and the founder of the Brady Chapter at Georgetown Law.

Rachel is also passionate about her pro bono practice, with a specific focus on gun violence prevention and working with survivors of domestic violence. While in law school, Rachel was a student attorney for the Domestic Violence Clinic, where she represented survivors of domestic violence in obtaining civil protection orders.
