

Marine De Montecler

Senior Associate

Paris

Biography

Marine de Montecler focuses her practice on corporate, stock exchange and financial litigation as well as white-collar criminal law.

Her double degree in management and law allows a deep understanding of her clients' issues and helps her offer tailor-made solutions.

Marine began her career at a highly renowned litigation boutique firm before joining Hogan Lovells in 2020.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - The impact of the COVID-19 crisis and government measures in relation to the capacity of parties to perform their contractual obligations - force majeure, revision of contracts for unforeseen circumstances and MAC clauses
- News
 - COVID-19: can parties be relieved from their contractual obligations?

Phone

+ 33 1 53 67 47 47

Fax

+33 1 53 67 47 48

Email

marine.demontecler@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French

Practices

Litigation Services
Commercial Litigation

Areas of focus

Corporate and Shareholder
Litigation in Europe

Education and admissions

Education

Masters in Business and Tax Law,
University of Paris I Panthéon-
Sorbonne, 2011

Master of Science in Management,
HEC Paris, 2011

Bar admissions and qualifications

Paris
