

Pierluigi Feliciani

Senior Associate

Rome

Biography

Pierluigi has a wealth of experience in advising international clients on their entry into the Italian market and thereafter providing support in their day-to-day business activities. He has assisted in domestic and cross-border M&A and real estate transactions in a broad range of industries including energy, life sciences and luxury goods.

Clients appreciate Pierluigi's unique mix of proactivity, a practical approach and a swift response time to each and every issue that arises. Whether it concerns corporate law issues, the incorporation of new companies, the purchase or disposal of a business, establishment of corporate governance policies or special plans for employees' incentives, he always knows how to get the job done beyond clients' expectations. Where necessary he coordinates effectively the foreign law support from his Hogan Lovells global colleagues.

His can-do attitude, precision and commitment, as well as his practical and commercial problem-solving skills, are widely recognised both inside and outside the firm, and are exactly what clients look for in a corporate law advisor. In addition to being qualified in Italy and a member of the Italian Bar Association, Pierluigi is also qualified in Spain and a member of the Spanish Bar Association.
