

Rachael A. S. Collins

Associate

Denver

Biography

Rachael Collins focuses her practice on issues ranging from Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and medical device regulation to intellectual property and commercial issues. Her unique engineering and military background makes her well-equipped to tackle complex technical issues on an accelerated timeline, while maintaining attention to detail.

Before joining Hogan Lovells, Rachael served 11 years in the United States Navy. Originally an enlisted nuclear mechanic, Rachael earned her commission and was among the first class of women to qualify as a Submarine Warfare Officer. While attending law school, Rachael worked as a judicial extern for Justice Sheryl Gordon McCloud at the Washington Supreme Court.

Rachael has broad interests in supporting her community through pro bono efforts. She not only enjoys helping community members establish their intellectual property rights, but she also has a strong interest in advocating for veterans and people with disabilities.

Latest thinking and events

- Press Releases
  - Hogan Lovells launches Global Ability Inclusion Network (GAIN)
- Press Releases
  - Hogan Lovells advises Roku, Inc on acquisition of

Phone

+1 303 454 2527

Fax

+1 303 899 7333

Email

rachael.collins@hoganlovells.com

---

Practices

Intellectual Property

Trade Secrets and Confidential Know-how

Patents

Litigation Services

IP Litigation, Arbitration, and Alternative Dispute Resolution

Copyright

Trademarks and Brands

---

Industries

Technology and Telecoms

---

Areas of focus

IP Rights in Transactions

---

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., University of Washington
School of Law, 2019

B.S., Nuclear Engineering,
Pennsylvania State University, 2010

---

Bar admissions and qualifications

California

Colorado

U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

Washington

---