

Arthur Boeuf

Associate

Paris

Biography

Arthur Boeuf is an associate in the Paris litigation team with a focus on mass tort and commercial cross-border litigations.

Since he joined the team, Arthur has assisted clients facing commercial litigation and pre litigation claims in very diverse industries such as Aviation, Automotive, Technology, Media and Telecommunications and Life Sciences (pharmaceutical, medical devices and biotechnology).

He also assists innovative companies and online platforms in their disputes with consumer associations and/or regulatory authorities. Arthur has developed a strong knowledge of cases involving the liability of social networks and online platforms.

Arthur studied both in France (Pantheon-Sorbonne University) and in the United States (Columbia Law School), a dual education which gives him a global cross-border understanding of business law, tort law and contractual liability.
