London

Biography

Dr. Ademola Bamgbose is a lawyer in the international arbitration group. He is also a key member of the global Africa practice, and is admitted to practice in Nigeria, England and Wales.

He represents clients in high-value international arbitrations, spanning multiple sectors and jurisdictions, and under the major arbitral rules. He has previously undertaken a commercial litigation secondment in the legal department of a top FTSE 100 company in London.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, he spent time at the ICC Court of Arbitration in Paris. He has also worked at a leading dispute resolution firm in Lagos, where he advised on commercial disputes and represented clients in complex litigations at superior courts in Nigeria.

Ademola has a keen interest in Africa and the emerging markets, and he regularly speaks and contributes to ongoing discourse in international commercial law and arbitration.
