

Juliana De Valdenebro Garrido

Law Clerk
Miami

Biography

Juliana de Valdenebro-Garrido focuses her practice on international commercial and investment arbitration. She has experience in arbitration before various arbitral institutions and rules, such as International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), as well the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) rules.

Juliana handles client disputes from beginning to end, regularly drafting substantial submissions in proceedings, preparing and conducting cross-examination of witnesses and experts, and actively participating in final international arbitration hearings. Additionally, she has worked on a number of post-arbitral proceedings ranging from annulment to enforcement of awards.

Juliana frequently speaks at industry and regional conferences. She has addressed the ICC Young Arbitrators Forum, International Centre for Dispute Resolution Young & International, Lima Chamber of Commerce, Harvard International Arbitration Law Student Association (HIALSA), Argentina Young Arbitration Practitioners, and the Georgetown International Arbitration Society.

Phone

+1 305 459 6663

Fax

+1 305 459 6550

Email

juliana.devaldenebro@hoganlovells.com

---

Languages

English
Spanish

---

Practices

International Arbitration
Latin America Regional Practice

---

Industries

Diversified Industrials
Energy and Natural Resources

---

At Harvard Law School, Juliana co-founded HIALSA and received the Dean's Award for Community Leadership. In 2010, she graduated as a lawyer first in her class from the Universidad de los Andes. She received the Ramón de Zubiría scholarship four times for maintaining the highest grade point average in law school.

Before joining Hogan Lovells, Juliana practiced at a leading firm in Bogotá, Colombia, where she focused on domestic and international arbitrations. She also founded Colombian Very Young Arbitration Practitioners and has published articles on arbitration agreements in corporate statutes and the Convention for the International Sale of Goods.

Representative experience

Representing a Central American country in investment treaty arbitration related to the expropriation of real estate assets for an ecotourism project.

Representing a Central American country in investment treaty arbitration administered under the rules of the ICSID related to the expropriation of a mining concession.

Representing a Central American country in investment treaty arbitration related to the expropriation of a trading house in violation of securities law.

Representing an investor in ICSID arbitration against the Republic of Peru in relation to an exclusive agreement for vehicular inspections in Lima and Callao.

Representing an investor against the Dominican Republic related to the expropriation of a concession to operate a sanitary landfill.

Advising a Central American country in the negotiation of the investment chapter of a free trade agreement with China.

Representing client in ICC arbitration seated in Miami

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M., Harvard Law School, Dean's Award for Community Leadership, 2015

Law Degree, Universidad de Los Andes, magna cum laude, 2010

---

Memberships

Member, ICC Colombia Arbitration Subcommittee

Board, Colombian Very Young Arbitration Practitioners

Member, Young ICCA Mentoring Program, 2015-2016

---

in relation to a breach of contract pertaining to an accounts receivable contract.

Representing a government entity in an ICC dispute related to public utility services.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
  - COVID-19: will State measures give rise to a new set of investment claims?
- Hogan Lovells Events
  - Women in Arbitration Reception
- Published Works
  - Coffee, Anyone? An Insider's Look at the Gender Disparity in International Arbitration IILP Review 2019-2020: The State of Diversity and Inclusion in the Legal Profession
- Published Works
  - Coffee, Anyone? An Insider's Look at the Gender Disparity in International Arbitration 2018 Review of the Institute for Inclusion in the Legal Profession
- Published Works
  - A Legal Framework Is Only as Good as Its Implementation: The Conflation of Grounds for Denying Enforcement and Vacating Arbitral Awards in Industrial Risk International Law Quarterly, International Law Section of the Florida Bar
- Published Works
  - Two Key Considerations on Infrastructure and Energy Disputes with Arbitral Seat in Latin America The Guide to Infrastructure and Energy Investment, 2nd Edition, Latin Lawyer