

Kate Chen

Associate
Shanghai

Biography

As a junior associate in our Corporate group, Kate advises on foreign direct investments, mergers and acquisitions, regulatory-related matters, data privacy, and TMT laws. Kate was admitted to the PRC Bar in 2016 and is fluent in Mandarin, English, and Shanghainese.

Representative experience

Advised a German air cleaning system manufacturing group on its global restructuring.

Advised one of the world's largest multinational automotive cooperation on its global restructuring.

Advised the world's largest publicly traded international oil and gas company on regulatory issues.

Advised the world's leading health care diagnostics company on the merger of two entities located in two different provinces in China.

Advised a Singapore-based caregiver cooperation on the optimum structure for operation of eight domestic nursing stations.

Provided on-going data-related advice to a multinational equipment manufacturer.

Provided on-going legal advice to a global insurance broker.

Phone

+86 21 6138 1601

Fax

+86 21 6122 3899

Email

kate.chen@hoganlovells.com

Languages

Mandarin Chinese
English

Education and admissions

Education

LL.B., East China University of Political Sciences and Law

Bar admissions and qualifications

People's Republic of China

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - A tale of two visions: what does China's social credit system really mean?
- Press Releases
 - Hogan Lovells Advises Novartis in Strategic Licensing and Collaboration with Cellular Biomedicine Group to Produce CAR-T Cell Therapy for Patients in China