

Dr. Florian von Schreitter

Senior Knowledge Lawyer
Dusseldorf

Biography

Florian von Schreitter sources, creates and delivers knowledge to the Antitrust, Competition and Economic Regulation (ACER) team. Working with ACER's Germany- and Brussels-based lawyers, he aims to ensure timely, tailored and cost-efficient legal advice to all ACER clients.

Having previously worked as a senior associate in the Düsseldorf and Brussels offices of a large German firm as well as the London office of a British Magic Circle firm, Florian has detailed competition and antitrust law experience, advising on behavioural and transactional matters in a variety of sectors. Florian has counselled clients on complex multinational mergers, competition litigation and compliance with the competition rules in respect of a wide range of commercial arrangements. He has represented both national and international companies in relation to procedures and investigations before the European Commission and the German Federal Cartel Office.

He is also an active contributor to academia, having authored numerous publications in the competition and antitrust field, in particular on the imposition of cartel fines and competition law compliance.
