

Justin Ansel

Senior Associate

Boston

Biography

Justin Ansel assists clients across a range of industries in civil and criminal litigation matters and government investigations. He works with clients through all phases of litigation, including risk assessment, due diligence, discovery, mediations, motion practice, witness preparation, trial, and appellate work – keeping their business goals top of mind every step of the way.

Drawing on his experience as a former high school history teacher and coach, Justin works together with his clients to talk through strategic legal solutions and anticipate potential risk.

During law school, Justin served as a legal intern for The Honorable Kenneth J. Fishman of the Massachusetts Superior Court and a summer associate at Collora LLP before it became the Boston office of Hogan Lovells.
