Biography

Tony Mou's practice focuses on general corporate and transactional matters. He advises in the areas of corporate finance, venture capital and private equity investments, mergers and acquisitions, fund formation, and foreign direct investments.

His clients include private equity/venture capital funds and general partners and limited partners, entrepreneurs, and venture-backed growth stage and public companies.

Tony assists multinational companies operating in both the People's Republic of China and the United States in a broad range of industries. He has extensive experience in advising overseas investors in setting up operations in China in the forms of joint venture or wholly owned subsidiaries and acquiring local Chinese companies, and in consulting China local clients in their business operations, expansions, and investments in various aspects in the United States. He also advises PRC clients by coordinating with U.S. specialists in tax planning, trust setup, employment, and litigation and mediation supports.
