

Tax Audits

Lawyers aren't just for litigation.

Across the globe clients ask us to help with tax audits. To test their tax analysis. To help with analysis they can't easily do themselves. But they also value our wider skills: forensics, gathering and presenting evidence, thinking like the tax authority, challenging the authority when they are unfair or don't stick to the rules. Helping set a strategy for the whole audit. Standing by our clients' side throughout.

If an audit leads to a court or tribunal appeal, we will be by your side. But few do. And we're here to make sure that your audits don't.
