

Hospital M&A activity update: Robust deal flow continues in 2017

12 September 2017

Becker's Hospital Review

At the outset of 2017, we predicted that the outlook for healthcare M&A activity would remain strong in the upcoming year.

With well over half the year behind us, it is clear that deal flow in this sector continues to be as robust as ever. PWC reported that the broader U.S. health services industry executed over 200 deals in Q2 2017 for the 11th quarter in a row, with the hospitals subsector experiencing positive volume growth on both a quarterly and yearly basis.

Read More: Hospital M&A Activity Update: Robust Deal Flow Continues in 2017

> Read the full article online