

Nina Fischer

Business Lawyer

Frankfurt

Biography

Nina Fischer advises our clients on capital market matters and focuses on the advice of German and international clients in connection with the documentation of base prospectuses and the issue of retail structured products (certificates, leveraged products and notes). Nina is also experienced in the preparation of key investment documents (KIDs) and marketing material.

In addition, Nina advises syndicate banks and issuers in connection with the documentation of debt issuance programs as well as on capital market and derivative transactions.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells Nina worked for one of the Big Four accounting organizations during her studies.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Our Capital Markets Update Germany 2019
- Press Releases
 - Hogan Lovells advises banks on the placement of the world's first Blue Social Bond

Phone

+49 69 962 36 100

Fax

+49 69 962 36 100

Email

nina.fischer@hoganlovells.com

Languages

German
English

Practices

Capital Markets

Industries

Financial Institutions

Areas of focus

Derivatives and Structured Products
Raising Debt Capital

Education and admissions

Education

LL.M., Frankfurt University of Applied Sciences, 2019

LL.B., Leuphana University of Lüneburg, 2016
