

Anne Gahleitner, LL.M. (Kings College, London)

Business Lawyer
Hamburg

Biography

Anne Gahleitner supports banks, sponsors, companies and investors in infrastructure and energy projects and PPPs. Due to her experience she is the right person for complex infrastructure and energy projects. Her practice focuses on renewable energies (onshore and offshore wind; geothermal energy), highways (A-models) and social infrastructure.

In her bachelor degree Anne focused on energy law, during her masters she specialised in project finance and investment law. Before joining the Finance IERP team in Hamburg, Anne worked at a leading consulting firm as well as a well-known private bank in Vienna, Austria. She has also worked at a top commercial real estate services and investment company in London, UK, a large system supplier for hydropower stations in St. Pölten, Austria and a international commercial law firm in Budapest, Hungary.
