

Andrew M. Harris

Associate

New York

Biography

Andrew M. Harris helps clients navigate their complex commercial disputes and enforcement proceedings.

His practice focuses on litigation, international arbitration, and white collar investigations.

Andrew leverages his background as a corporate intelligence analyst to better understand the details of his clients' business, and help them form the most appropriate legal strategy. He applies these same skills to his pro bono practice at Hogan Lovells, representing clients in causes spanning from religious freedom to voting rights.

While at the New York University School of Law, Andrew served as an articles editor for the Annual Survey of American Law, and as a writer/producer for the NYU Law Revue. He gained valuable experience as a summer associate at Hogan Lovells in 2016.
