Biography

A triple-qualified lawyer (England, New-York and Paris), Oriane Cannac is a bilingual associate in our International Arbitration group, focusing her practice on commercial and investment treaty arbitration.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Oriane interned at several prestigious international law firms as well as at the European Central Bank. She is a graduate of the University of Oxford, Université Panthéon-Assas and HEC Paris.

Oriane has acted for clients across a range of industry sectors, including life sciences, technology, and media and telecommunications.

Representative experience

Representing a French pharmaceutical group in an ICC arbitration relating to the termination of a licence agreement for products marketed in Tunisia.

Representing a company specialised in the design and delivery of telecommunications in an LCIA arbitration against a major telecommunications company in Cameroon.

Representing one of the world leaders in information technologies, in a commercial dispute relating to its Tunisian entity, against a major consulting firm.
