

Vera Wichers

Senior Associate

Munich

Biography

Vera Wichers focuses her practice on commercial litigation. She is a solicitor-advocate with higher rights of audience in the English courts. Vera has experience in contractual disputes, tort, product liability, product safety and compliance, and internal investigations. Vera advises international and German clients from a broad range of industries, including automotive, food and beverage, electronics and consumer products. She has special experience in challenging the jurisdiction of foreign courts and in product safety and regulatory issues under English and EU law. She has further experience of arbitrations under the ICC rules.

Vera obtained her law degree from the University of Cambridge. After completing her two-year training at our London office, she qualified into our London Commercial Litigation, Product Liability and Insurance practice in 2012. Vera also spent six months working in our Paris Litigation group before transferring to Munich in 2014.
