

03 May 2018

A monthly newsletter covering topics of interest in the field of UK corporate law including mergers and acquisitions, listed companies, equity capital markets, corporate governance and general company law.

This month's edition includes articles on:

- Doing Business in the United States
- LSE consults on proposals to amend Nomad Rules
- FCA sends message to CEOs on irredeemable preference shares
- ESMA publishes its final report on technical advice under the Prospectus Regulation
- Shareholder Rights Directive: consultation on minimum requirements for transmission of information for the exercise of shareholder rights
- European Parliament resolution on the Fifth Money Laundering Directive
- Protection of residential addresses – final regulations published
- Cross-border conversions, mergers and divisions: European Commission proposal for amending directive
- Company registration and filing: European Commission proposed directive on digital tools in company law
- QCA publishes its revised Corporate Governance Code
- Companies House publishes its Business Plan for 2018/2019

Read the full newsletter: Corporate News – May 2018

> Read the full article online