

Dr. Michael Bowien, LL.M. (CUHK)

Senior Associate
Frankfurt

Biography

Dr. Michael Bowien advises national and international clients on the fields of financial regulation and investment law. His areas of specialization include, inter alia, regulatory requirements at the European level, in particular MiFID II / MiFIR and EMIR, as well as their national implementation. He further focuses on German and European Banking Supervisory Law (e.g. CRD, CRR, BRRD, SRMR und SSMR).

Another focus area of Michael is the advising of banks and financial services provider on compliance related topics (e.g. risk management and AML).

Prior to joining our firm, Michael worked for several years as a lawyer (Rechtsanwalt) for another international law firm as well as a legal counsel (Syndikusrechtsanwalt) for a leading German financial institution in the financial regulation department.
