

Christina T. Bassick

Associate

Washington, D.C.

Biography

Christina Bassick provides business-oriented legal and policy solutions to transportation, environment, public procurement, and education organizations.

She began her career at the firm as a summer associate in 2018. She has since helped clients navigate legal questions related to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, the Environmental Protection Agency, the Federal Rail Administration, and the California Air Resources Board. Christina also enjoys dedicating her time to the firm's award-winning Pro Bono practice.

Christina graduated from University of Virginia School of Law in 2019. While there, she served as an executive editor for the Virginia Journal of International Law.

She also served on the Student Bar Association and as vice president to the J.B. Moore Society of International Law. Prior to law school, Christina graduated from Tufts University with degrees in international relations and environmental studies with a minor in Chinese language.
