

David Baron

Senior Associate

New York

Biography

David Baron knows how to navigate pitfalls to reach a desired outcome both in and out of litigation. With a keen understanding of the myriad issues facing employers and employees alike, David uses his robust experience in federal, state, and administrative proceedings to assist clients.

David's clients span numerous and diverse industries – financial services, education, software and information technology, media and entertainment, telecommunications, consumer goods, medical device – each with distinct characteristics and needs. David also counsels on employment discrimination litigation, traditional labor disputes, non-compete and non-solicitation disputes, breach of contract claims, and executive agreements.
