

Paige S. Comparato

Associate

Miami

Biography

Paige Comparato helps clients handle complex commercial matters, including breach of contract and business torts, intellectual property litigation, class action defense, and products liability matters.

Paige graduated first in her class from the University of Miami School of Law. She received book awards (for the highest grade or overall excellence) in 10 courses, including Contracts, Civil Procedure II, Legal Communication I & II, Property, and Torts. After she passed the bar, the Florida Board of Bar Examiners selected her bar examination essay on Florida Constitutional Law from thousands of examinees for publication as a model answer in its Florida Bar study guide.

Prior to joining the firm, Paige served as a judicial intern for the Honorable James Lawrence King of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida. She was also a Senior Notes & Comments Editor for the University of Miami Law Review and served on the Board of Governors for the law student division of the Florida Bar Young Lawyers Division.

Paige holds a double B.A. degree, with distinction, in Public Policy as well as Political Science from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and completed a minor in Public Relations. There, she
