

Nicole Lim

Associate
Singapore

Biography

Nicole is an associate in the Investigations, White Collar Crime, and Fraud (IWCF) team. She has experience representing multinational corporations and financial institutions across Asia-Pacific. Her industry experience encompasses a variety of sectors, including financial services, energy and natural resources, diversified industrials and technology, media and telecommunications.

Representative experience

Advising an international hedge fund, brokerage, and asset manager with "frozen" collateral in Indonesia.

Advising a U.S. software company with U.S. export control, trade compliance and customer relationships.

Advising a U.S. technology manufacturer in its response to adverse social media posts and concerns of copyright infringement.

Advising a global audit, tax and advisory firm with a PCAOB investigation in relation to its Singapore operations.

Latest thinking and events

- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - New and improved? Corporate liability for corruption in Malaysia SEA View alert

Phone

+65 6302 2429

Fax

+65 6538 7077

Email

nicole.lim@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English

Practices

Corporate Governance

Government Relations and Public Affairs

Investigations, White Collar, and Fraud

Technology Litigation

Industries

Diversified Industrials

Energy and Natural Resources

- Insights

- Singapore, the digital, and the VASP's sting

Financial Institutions

Technology & Telecoms

Education and admissions

Education

LL.B. (Hons), University of Birmingham, 2017

Memberships

The Law Society of Singapore

Singapore Academy of Law

Bar admissions and qualifications

Singapore
