

Hali Rachel Katz

Knowledge Lawyer
New York

Biography

Hali Katz is a knowledge lawyer for our U.S. Finance practice group. She connects lawyers with the information and resources they need to help their clients efficiently and effectively.

Hali keeps the lawyers current on legal developments and maintains document repositories to assist with the legal process. She also works to develop the lawyer training program and learning paths for associates and to provide access to external training programs relevant to the group.

Hali collaborates with associates and partners to research and draft articles for publication, and works on client alerts, newsletters, and presentations. She also supports the groups business development and marketing efforts.

Hali knows the firm well; she was previously an associate in our Real Estate group for 10 years.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - Alternatives to SOFR: an overview of existing credit sensitive rates
- News
 - New Release: Financial Institutions Horizons 2021

Phone

+1 212 918 3681

Fax

+1 212 918 3100

Email

hali.katz@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Real Estate

Financial Services

Business Restructuring and Insolvency

Infrastructure, Energy, Resources, and Projects

Capital Markets

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., New York University School of Law, 2004

- Insights
 - Remaining steps along the road to LIBOR transition
- News
 - ARRC Proposes New York Legislation to Reduce LIBOR Litigation Risk
- News
 - "The Chewy Phantom Guarantee": a Cautionary Tale of today's leverage finance market Lev Fin Spin
- Hogan Lovells Engage
 - US Treasury report on FinTech calls for sweeping changes Hogan Lovells Engage

B.A., Emory University, Phi Beta Kappa, 2001

Bar admissions and qualifications

New York
