

Irina Goga

Associate
New York

Biography

Irina Goga focuses her practice on litigation and international arbitration. She has experience in commercial arbitration in the consumer and technology sectors and has handled matters ranging from contractual disputes to corporate governance.

Irina graduated from New York University School of Law where she served as the Symposium Editor for the NYU Journal of International Law and Politics, organized events for the International Arbitration Association, and participated in the NYU Law in Paris program. She also worked on civil rights issues, such as prison reform and discrimination, alongside organizations such as the New York Civil Liberties Union and the Sikh Coalition.

Representative experience

Represented a major medical device manufacturer in an investigation rooted in a False Claims Act qui tam suit, resulting in a declination by DOJ, followed by a voluntary dismissal by the relator.
