

Hugo Muñoz

Associate

Madrid

Biography

Hugo is an Associate in the Corporate/M&A practice at Hogan Lovells Madrid office. With a comprehensive understanding of issues surrounding international corporate transactions, Hugo focuses on developing and implementing the most efficient approach to all transactions. His background in legal English, combined with experience and knowledge of Spanish law, results in a perfect mix for international clients investing or divesting in Spain.

Focused on infrastructure, private equity and retail, he advises several international companies on their day-to-day business and reorganizations in Spain, and has advised and coordinated teams in several international corporate transactions with both domestic and foreign clients.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, he gained experience in the renewable energy sector as an in-house lawyer for the Elecnor group, and later focused on International Business Transactions during his LLM at Georgetown University in 2014.
