

Assets of Community Value – a NIMBY lifeline?

10 July 2018

Keeping It Real Estate

Objectors are always looking for new, low cost ways to stop or delay the offending development. Lobbying for town and village green designations used to achieve this, but as the effectiveness of that route has been hampered by changes in the law NIMBYs have been offered a lifeline in the form of Assets of Community Value (ACVs).

Click here to read the full article.

Author: Sophie Marson, Trainee Solicitor

> Read the full article online