

EMA's initiative of expanding the use of early background summaries

14 April 2017

Focus on Regulation

In an effort to help assessors evaluate initial marketing authorization applications, the European Medicines Agency (EMA) has taken the initiative to extend the use of “early background summaries”.

To read more, click here.

> Read the full article online