Biography

Bill Kettlewell has deep experience helping clients with both white collar criminal defense and complex civil litigation. As a former state and federal prosecutor, he has assisted clients in responding to all types of government enforcement actions, having tried numerous civil and criminal cases in both state and federal courts. He has also handled a number of sensitive internal corporate investigations.

Throughout his career, Bill has represented companies, executives, and professionals in a wide variety of industries, including healthcare, pharmaceutical, medical devices, financial services, industrial materials, environmental services, defense procurement, and commercial fishing.

Bill has successfully dealt with government investigations and enforcement actions arising out of alleged kickbacks, antitrust violations, obstruction of justice, overbilling, false claims, and fraud. He has also dealt with complex environmental crimes as well as ERISA and bank fraud issues.

Bill's civil litigation experience includes the defense of clients involved in multidistrict, private antitrust actions, mass torts, and the defense of commercial disputes, false advertising claims, qui tam, and fraud actions.
