

Nathalie M. de Almagro

Associate

Miami

Biography

Nathalie de Almagro advocates for clients in a variety of complex litigation and international arbitration disputes.

Nathalie graduated first in her class from Florida International University College of Law. She was awarded the CALI Excellence for the Future Award in a number of courses, including Federal Courts, Civil Procedure, Pretrial Practice, as well as Legal Skills and Values I-III. She also served as Executive Managing Editor of the FIU Law Review and founding board member of the FIU Business Law Society.

Prior to joining the firm, Nathalie clerked at two Fortune 500 corporations where she learned first-hand about the complexities and needs of in-house legal departments. With this background, she appreciates and works to facilitate the intersection between the law and business.

Nathalie graduated summa cum laude from Florida International University with a bachelor of arts in Political Science, a minor in Spanish Language and Culture, and a certificate in Latin American and Caribbean Studies. During her undergraduate studies, she served in FIU's Student Government Association in multiple capacities and worked at the Steven J. Green School of International and Public Affairs.
