

Cynthia Carney Johnson

Attorney
New York

Biography

Cynthia Carney Johnson draws on more than 20 years of broad-based experience as an associate, project manager, and e-discovery attorney to assist partners and associates in the Litigation, Arbitration, and Employment (LAE) practice group to understand and meet their discovery demands and obligations.

Cynthia advises on all aspects of electronic discovery, including case management; vendor management; document preservation, review, and production; and privilege. With certifications in e-discovery and legal project management (LPM), she works closely with the LPM LAE practice group to advise lawyers on LPM solutions and tools. Cynthia is also actively involved with the firm's Crisis Leadership Team.

Cynthia is a member of The Sedona Conference, the New York City Bar Association's E-Discovery Working Group, the Association of Certified E-Discovery Specialists (ACEDS), and Women in E-Discovery.

Representative experience

Drafted protocol for privilege review of documents in large-scale litigation.

Worked with Bar Association Courts of Superior Jurisdiction Committee to draft memo on categorical privilege logs as chair of e-discovery subcommittee.
