

Nina Tulloch

Counsel

London

Biography

A senior commercial litigator, Nina's background is in re/insurance disputes and professional negligence. Her case experience includes both litigation in the form of Commercial Court actions and International Arbitrations. She is particularly interested in coverage disputes and often act for insureds seeking recovery from insurers.

Nina speaks fluent Spanish and French and most of her work has an international element. She is a former Judicial Assistant to the Court of Appeal which means she is used to turning her mind to different areas of law.

Representative experience

Representing a Spanish property group in litigation in England against a finance house following an alleged breach of financial obligations by the finance house.

Acting for an insurer based in Mexico in a multi million dollar coverage dispute with London Market reinsurers in the Commercial Court in London.

Providing advice to a Colombian insurer in a claim against London Market reinsurers under a Bankers Blanket Bond cover with a claims co-operation clause.

Advising a Peruvian insurer in respect of its coverage under London Market financial institutions reinsurance.

Phone

+44 20 7296 5667

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

nina.tulloch@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
Cantonese
French
Spanish

Practices

Litigation
Commercial Litigation

Industries

Insurance

Areas of focus

Reviewing and negotiating Financial Institutions Professional Indemnity and D&O wordings for Latin American reinsureds.

Representing a bank in a claim brought in England by a customer alleging mis-selling of Payment Protection Insurance.

Latest thinking and events

- Blog Post
 - Venezuela - the challenge continues
- Blog Post
 - Claims Control: Challenges and trends for Latin American insurers working with the London Market
- Blog Post
 - EU: Expert Group finds differences in contract laws impede the cross-border supply of insurance
- Blog Post
 - Scottish referendum: Is your business prepared?
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - European Insurance Contract Law Reform Update
Client Notes
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - International Product Liability Review - Issue 50
Product Liability Alert

Accountants' Liability
Insurance Litigation

Education and admissions

Education

Postgraduate Diploma in Law, BPP
University Law School

LLB (Hons) Law with French,
University of Edinburgh

LPC, Nottingham Law School
