

Blake A. Jenkins

Senior Associate

Houston

Biography

Blake Jenkins assists clients in all stages of litigation, including early case assessment, factual investigation, electronic discovery, dispositive motions, mediation, depositions, and trial. Blake has particular experience helping clients in the energy sector, with a focus on complex commercial litigation.

During law school, Blake gained practical experience as an intern for the Honorable David Hittner of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas. He also assisted federal prosecutors as a summer clerk for the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Texas.

Blake also supports Hogan Lovells' commitment to sustainability, serving on the firm's national environmental committee.

Representative experience

Presented witnesses during nine-figure trial involving a breach of contract dispute relating to the performance of a deep-water drillship.

Represented oil refiner and marketer in wrongful death action, post-judgment asset collection effort, and in breach of contract and trademark dispute.

Defended technical education trade school in dispute with an independent contractor.
