

March 2018

Tax Newsletter

It should be noted that the South African Revenue Service (SARS) has appointed a number of additional debt collectors in order to collect outstanding tax debts. It prudent that taxpayers settle their debts with SARS to avoid disputes with SARS.

It is clear that SARS intends to take a firmer stance in the collection of tax debts. This is in line with previous statements made by SARS and following the closure of the special voluntary disclosure programme.

> Read the full article online