

Gabriel R. Ulman

Associate

Los Angeles

Biography

Gabriel Ulman knows that the best legal representation comes from lawyers who truly understand the businesses they represent. By bringing both legal and business acumen to the table, Gabriel is able to advise and assist his clients in tackling a wide-range of challenges and opportunities.

Whether it's health care compliance and regulation, risk management, structured finance, or entertainment and new media, Gabriel brings a unique perspective as both a legal representative and a business partner. His vast experience working in these industries makes him more than just a lawyer to his clients. He is an advisor in every aspect.

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Gabriel worked at several of the major studios where he concentrated on intellectual property, licensing, profit participation, and structured transactions. Before attending law school, Gabriel worked as a compliance director at a managed care organization as well as a project manager and auditor at the nation's largest provider of electronic health records.
