

April 2017

Employment Alert

In this edition of our Global Employment Law Update we look at the effects of the rapid growth of the "gig" economy across the jurisdictions.

There have been significant case law and legislative responses, particularly on issues around the classification of workers as employees or self-employed contractors.

Please click here to read the update.

> Read the full article online