

Kelsey Moran

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Kelsey Moran advises clients on U.S. and international business transactions, with a focus on cross-border mergers and acquisitions.

Kelsey has represented clients in domestic and cross-border transactions involving industries as diverse as aerospace, defense, and government services; automotive; food, beverage, and agriculture; industrial manufacturing; life sciences and health care; and technology, media, and telecoms. These transactions range from large M&A transactions to venture capital investments.

In addition to her corporate work, Kelsey maintains an active pro bono practice before a variety of courts and government agencies. She is dedicated to representing homeless families, as well as women and children in refugee resettlement and other immigration proceedings. She also actively volunteers with local organizations supporting the success of women and children, including Casa Chirilagua and DC127.

While in law school, Kelsey served as Executive Notes Editor of The Tax Lawyer and as a peer advisor to her fellow Georgetown Law students. Before law school, she earned a B.A. in Political Science and International Studies from Kansas State University, where she was selected to receive a Fulbright Scholarship.

Phone

+1 202 637 6152

Fax

+1 202 637 5910

Email

kelsey.moran@hoganlovells.com

---

Practices

Corporate

Mergers and Acquisitions

---

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, cum laude, 2015

B.A., Kansas State University, summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, 2010

---

Bar admissions and qualifications

Latest thinking and events

- Press Releases

- Hogan Lovells advises Daimler on a mobility joint venture with BMW

District of Columbia

Kansas

---