

Georgina Denton

Associate

London

Biography

As part of the Financial Services Litigation team, Georgina Denton's practice focuses on commercial and financial services disputes, investigations and contentious regulatory matters. Georgina acts for prominent financial institutions and corporate clients, and her work regularly involves cross-border issues.

Georgina has experience advising clients on a variety of matters, including High Court litigation and enforcement proceedings.

Representative experience

Acting for a leading international bank in relation to a claim regarding missing trader intra-community fraud.

Representing a Russian energy group in enforcement proceedings following a complex shareholder dispute involving assets in Ukraine and Russia.

Advising on an arbitration involving a US$500m syndicated loan.

Latest thinking and events

- Insights
 - Impact financing and the risk of litigation
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - IBA launches Model Statute for climate change

Phone

+44 20 7296 7256

Fax

+44 20 7296 2001

Email

georgina.denton@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
French

Practices

Commercial
Financial Services

Industries

Financial Institutions

Areas of focus

Anti-money Laundering
Bribery and Corruption

litigation against governments

Consumer Finance Litigation

Corporate and Shareholder
Litigation in Europe

Dealing with Financial Services
Regulators

IERP Dispute Resolution

Education and admissions

Education

LPC, BPP University Law School, 2017

BA (Hons) Law with French and French Law, University of Nottingham, 2016

Bar admissions and qualifications

Solicitor, England and Wales
