

Matthew J. Piehl

Senior Associate

Minneapolis

Biography

Health care and life science companies rely on Matthew Piehl to provide strategic guidance on fraud and abuse regulatory issues, antitrust merger counseling and advocacy, and corporate compliance. He combines substantial experience and sharp insight to guide clients through investigations, mergers and acquisitions, and industry compliance.

Matthew helps clients navigate challenging regulatory compliance problems – especially health care fraud and abuse matters – to allow them to build and expand business relationships that aid patients and consumers.

Matthew also possesses deep experience advising clients in the areas of antitrust compliance and merger enforcement. Matthew counsels clients throughout the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act process, and has successfully represented clients before the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice.

In law school, he served as an editor for the Virginia Journal of International Law. Prior to law school, Matthew worked with the North Carolina Office of Rural Health to develop a program to combat childhood obesity.

Phone

+1 612 402 3036

Fax

+1 612 402 3001

Email

matthew.piehl@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Antitrust and Competition

Health Law

Pharmaceuticals and Biotechnology Regulatory

Industries

Life Sciences and Health Care

Areas of focus

False Claims Act and Qui Tam

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - Stark Law waivers, HHS-OIG announcement offer health care providers greater flexibility during COVID-19 pandemic
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - New False Claims Act settlement points to risks of offering free goods and services to customers and referral source Health Alert
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - HHS OIG: Smartphone loaner to needy patients may not violate Anti-Kickback Statute Pharmaceutical and Biotechnology Alert
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - California Department of Insurance emerges in kickback enforcement
- Analysis
 - New anti-kickback prohibition in opioid bill creates tangled web of compliance obligations Pharmaceutical and Biotechnology Alert
- Published Works
 - 9th Circ. Adds to Growing Consensus on Escobar FCA Test Law360

Education and admissions

Education

J.D., University of Virginia School of Law, 2011

B.S. Biology, Duke University, with distinction, 2008

Memberships

Member, American Bar Association, Antitrust Law Section

Member, Leadership Development Program, American Health Law Association

Chair, Minnesota State Bar Association, Antitrust Law Section

Bar admissions and qualifications

Minnesota

District of Columbia
