

Malte Neumann

Associate
Hamburg

Biography

Malte Neumann advises national and international clients from regulated industries, in particular from the energy and aviation sector. He assists clients in dealing with regulatory legal issues and supports them in structuring joint ventures as well as in complex transactions, mergers and acquisitions.

Malte has advanced expertise in the acquisition and development of renewable energy projects, such as wind and geothermal projects.

Malte studied law at the University of Göttingen with focus on public and administration law. Before working at our offices in Hamburg and London, he worked for other leading international law firms.
