

Petra den Boer

Associate
Amsterdam

Biography

As part of the Global Regulatory Life Sciences team, Petra advises on, draft contracts, and litigates in cases related to pharmaceutical products, medical devices and food.

Such advice includes legal advice for international and national pharmaceutical and medical device companies on matters relating to advertising and sponsoring, parallel trade, the development and approval of their products, pharmaceutical compounding and clinical trials.

Latest thinking and events

- News
 - EU Guidance to sponsors, investigators on how to manage clinical trials during the COVID-19 pandemic
- Blog Post
 - The Netherlands: specific exemption notification for medical devices in case of a no-deal Brexit
- Blog Post
 - Update EMA relocation to Amsterdam & regulatory changes for EU centrally approved medicinal products
- Blog Post
 - EMA office in Amsterdam opened – Wooden

Phone

+31 20 55 33 757

Fax

+31 20 55 33 777

Email

petra.denboer@hoganlovells.com

Languages

English
Dutch

Practices

Health Law
Medical Device and Technology
Regulatory
Pharmaceuticals and Biotechnology Regulatory

Industries

Life Sciences and Health Care

shoes, orphan drugs and drug pricing in the context of Brexit

- Press Releases
 - Hogan Lovells advises Daimler on a mobility joint venture with BMW
- Hogan Lovells Publications
 - Pharmaceutical pricing key priority for Dutch Competition Authority in 2018-2019

Education and admissions

Education

Bachelor's degree in Dutch Law,
Erasmus University Rotterdam

Master's degree in Employment Law,
Erasmus University Rotterdam

Memberships

Dutch Association for Pharmacy and Law
