

Martina Di Nicola

Senior Associate

Milan

Biography

Since the beginning in 2007, in a top-ranked international law firm, where she was recognized as a promising professional, Martina assisted international clients in several operations in Italy as well as in a wide range of domestic and cross-border corporate/M&A transactions. An extra load of work does not discourage Martina, who always delivers punctual and precise advice to her clients that range from financial institutions to private equity funds and energy companies.

Martina joined Hogan Lovells in 2012 and she is considered a reliable and passionate associate of the Corporate/M&A practice. Martina's commitment and ability to translate her legal knowledge into suitable commercial solutions is appreciated by all of her clients who enjoy her responsiveness and competence, always mixed with a kind and relaxed approach.
