

Jonna Kappler Fernandes

Senior Associate

Hamburg

Biography

Jonna Kappler Fernandes advises national and international clients particularly on retail and office properties and logistic centres. She concentrates on property transactions and property funding. In this connection she comprehensively reviews the legal situation of the property with regard to civil law including private building law and public law. Further, Jonna advises on and negotiates property purchase agreements. Other aspects of her work are commercial lease agreements and brokerage law.

After studying law in Hamburg and at the Humboldt University in Berlin, Jonna completed an internship at the Legal Aid Board in Cape Town, South Africa. During her legal traineeship at the Hanseatic Higher Regional Court she worked inter alia for an international law firm in Singapore and the Higher Regional Court in Hamburg.
