

Cristina Sánchez

Associate

Madrid

Biography

Prior to joining Hogan Lovells, Cristina worked for a year in New York City at the legal department of an insurance company, participating in insurance litigation matters including negligence cases.

Previously, Cristina worked for two major Spanish law firms at the Litigation, Arbitration, Bankruptcy and IP Departments. She has extensive experience in banking litigation and in dispute resolution regarding civil and commercial contracts, franchise agreements and insurance law.

Cristina has managed several bankruptcy procedures, advising creditors and debtors in bankruptcy.

Cristina Sanchez is a Junior Associate within the Insurance and Reinsurance Division of Hogan Lovells' Madrid Office. She focuses on insurance litigation, where she has particular experience in the defence of insurance and reinsurance companies in a wide range of matters such as professional liability claims, D&O and coverage disputes, as well as others.

Cristina is passionate about ballet dancing and travelling.

Representative experience

Legal counsel and defence on a large number of claims regarding surety policies subscribed in the context of

Phone

+34 91 349 8224

Fax

+34 91 349 82 00

Email

cristina.sanchez@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Insurance

several real estate developments.

Legal counsel and defence of renowned insurance and reinsurance companies before the Spanish Courts in professional liability cases.