

Mike Gendall

Senior Associate
Washington, D.C.

Biography

Mike Gendall focuses his practice on civil litigation, with a particular emphasis on antitrust and class action claims. A careful and strategic thinker, Mike has assisted his clients through many stages of litigation, from pleadings, discovery, and evidentiary hearings to settlement negotiations and appeals.

Before joining Hogan Lovells in 2018, Mike served as a law clerk to two federal judges: the Honorable Carolyn B. McHugh of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit and the Honorable J. Curtis Joyner of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Before that, he practiced in the Washington, D.C. office of a major international law firm, where he assisted domestic and international clients on all aspects of antitrust law, including monopolization and price-fixing litigation in the federal courts and pre-clearance merger reviews by the Federal Trade Commission and Department of Justice.
