

Gleb Kovrigin

Associate

Moscow

Biography

As part of our Litigation, Arbitration, and Investigations practice in Russia and CIS, Gleb focuses on complex cross-border litigation and arbitration for multinational companies and financial institutions.

Gleb also has considerable experience advising clients on sanctions and carrying out white collar crime internal investigations. His experience advising clients on various corporate (including M&A transactions), commercial, and employment law issues also helps Gleb to represent clients in the most efficient and client-oriented way – either in international disputes or in internal investigations.

Representative experience

Representing an international investment group in relation to an approx. US$200 million claim against the Republic of Kyrgyzstan in connection with the expropriation of their investment.

Representing a client on the internal investigation in Russia regarding allegations of fraud and corruption by its senior Russian personnel.

Advising Russia's top 10 development company on the acquisition of the Four Seasons hotel (formerly known as the Moskva hotel) at Red Square.

Advising a large Russian investment company on a

Phone

+7 495 933 3000

Fax

+7 495 933 3001

Email

gleb.kovrigin@hoganlovells.com

Practices

Business Restructuring and Insolvency

Commercial

Securities, Shareholder, and M&A
Litigation

International Arbitration

Investigations, White Collar, and Fraud

Mergers and Acquisitions

number of corporate governance issues with respect to the Russian JV.

Advising a famous international publishing house on restructuring its publishing business in Russia in view of the country's new media regulations, including regulatory and employment advice.

Representing the State Corporation Deposit Insurance Agency in proceedings on enforcement of Russian court judgments against Sergey Pugachev outside Russia.

Advising a number of clients on sanctions addressing evolving situation in Ukraine introduced by US and EU as well as Russian retaliatory measures and their impact on companies business in Russia.

Industries

Automotive

Consumer

Financial Institutions
