

Carolin Marx

Senior Associate

Munich

Biography

Clients praise Carolin Marx for her passion and dedication in resolving their disputes. She will handle your representation in negotiations, mediation and litigation in a variety of commercial conflicts – antitrust damage proceedings and supply-chain disputes being at the core of her practice. Carolin also brings an in-depth understanding of the automotive industry and the technology sector to the table.

Handling antitrust damage cases Carolin has spent considerable time in our London Competition Litigation Team where she advised on the coordination of a large cross-boarder follow-on litigation. Carolin has been with Hogan Lovells from the get go of her legal career: She first joined our Munich Litigation and Arbitration team during early days of her law studies in 2008, has remained with Hogan Lovells ever since and has also worked in our London International Arbitration Team. Carolin has a strong academic background in international private and civil procedure law as well as alternative dispute resolution being a trained commercial mediator (MuCDR).

Carolin also brings her dedication to our Community Investment and Diversity Initiatives: she is a mentor in our Flagship program "Debate It!" where we teach young people public speaking skills. Carolin helps them
